From the Vice Pastor

"For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread and when he had given thanks…"
1 Corinthians 11:23

Sociologists, Psychologists, and even Medical Doctors have said that the happiest people on earth are generous people and second to that are grateful people. In my experience, they often go hand in hand. When I focus on all the things I have to be grateful for, it is easier for me to be open-hearted and open-handed to others. The thing about both gratitude and generosity is that, by definition, neither can be imposed by one person on another. Paul was forever telling churches that they "should" give thanks in in all circumstances. They "should" rejoice in suffering. They "should" praise God no matter what they are going through. He isn't wrong, but to tell someone who is suffering that they should anything just adds to their pain. I have had many conversations with people who have suffered terrible losses. Well-meaning Christians have said things to them along the lines of:
Everything happens for a reason.
God needed another angel in heaven.
God never gives us more than we can handle.

Generally, people say these things in order to make sense of tragedy. It makes them feel better to believe it and they assume it will make everyone else feel better too. Unfortunately, it usually just makes people angry with God or church or both. That makes it isolating more than comforting. The truth is that the only one who has any control over our response is ourselves. That is actually a really powerful truth. It is true when the world seems to be spinning out of control, when we experience devastating losses, and when we have really big bad emotions, we still get to decide for ourselves how we are going to react to all of it. Grief is unique and powerful in that we hold both loss and gratitude together. The more we loved something or someone, the more thankful we are to have had it. It is also devastating to be without it. In many cases, we never get over it. It will always be a scar on our heart, but the open wound can heal as we focus on giving thanks for the time we had. As the wound heals, we then have an opportunity to open our hearts in generosity and service to others going through similar things. In the month of November, we are all invited to give thanks over a meal with our people. Some will have empty seats that were full last year. Others will have new people sitting in chairs (or highchairs). It is a time for both gratitude and grief, love and longing, peace and conflict. I encourage you to try to enter it with an open heart. Learn something new about the people in your life. And when all else fails, give thanks for the little things, because that is what gets us through the big things. Something I always go back to over and over, is that on the night before he was crucified, Jesus gathered with his friends for a meal. He gave thanks to God for them and fed them even though one was about to betray him, another was about to deny him, and most would abandon him. He gave thanks anyway and enjoyed the time he did have with them. Then one of the first things he did after resurrection was to eat with them again. It is a holy act to give thanks and eat. When we do so, I believe Jesus is in our midst.

Happy Thanksgiving!

With the love of Christ,
Pastor Kimberly

Transition Team Update

We have a lot of transitions coming in the next few months, here are a variety of ways you can help!

Come to Church! During this time, it's extra important to keep in touch with the community and take care of one another. A great way to do that is to keep coming to worship and program events.

All Saints Sunday

On November 1st we celebrate All Saints Sunday. Please bring to worship photos of your loved ones who have passed. You will be directed to place them at the stations set up around the altar. There will be time during the service to light candles and honor all the Saints who have gone before us. We hope you will join us for this meaningful day of remembrance.

Advent

We will be working on an Advent project on November 15th followed by a special coffee hour. There will be a sign-up sheet to make sure we have enough supplies for this craft. There will also be a children's craft for little hands. We will also be writing Christmas cards on November 8th and 15th to be sent to veterans or a nursing home.

Church Council Highlights

Messiah's Council meetings focused on caring for our church property, supporting worship and ministry during the pastoral transition, and preparing for the year ahead. Here are some highlights:

- ✞ Parking lot improvements approved: At the October 20 special congregational meeting, members approved spending $63,000 from the Perzin Fund for parking lot paving and striping. The project includes repairing damaged areas, improving drainage, and restoring parking and safety markings. Work was planned for late October, weather permitting, with arrangements to maintain nursery school access. We are grateful for Nick's work gathering proposals and coordinating the project, and for the Perzin family's lasting generosity.
- ✞ Sharing our blessings: Council approved $5,400 in Perzin charitable distributions to ELCA World Hunger, Lutheran Disaster Response, Strengthen Our Sisters, Covenant House, Ponds Food Pantry, Adler Aphasia Center, and Soul to Soul. These gifts extend Messiah's support to neighbors near and far.
- ✞ A successful food collection: The congregation contributed more than 650 food items to the Thrivent food challenge, exceeding the 500-item goal! Documentation is being submitted for a possible additional $500 contribution to the pantry. Thank you to everyone who donated and helped organize the collection.
- ✞ Music and Worship: Council approved a three-month trial appointment for organist Steve Malski, who has begun playing for worship and working with the band. Worship leaders are selecting familiar music and preparing for Advent and Christmas. Council is also arranging supply-pastor coverage for the coming months.
- ✞ The pastoral search continues: The Call Committee completed interviews with a candidate and continues working with the Synod to identify a pastor whose gifts fit Messiah's ministry and needs. Please keep the committee and our congregation in your prayers.
- ✞ Caring for our property: Parsonage improvements are nearing completion. Council also authorized removal of the dead maple near the driveway and septic-system servicing. Thank you to the volunteers who help maintain welcoming, usable spaces for our congregation and nursery school.
- ✞ Stewardship and budget planning: A bread-themed stewardship appeal will begin in November. Council is reviewing the proposed 2027 budget, including anticipated pastoral compensation and the resources needed to sustain our ministries.
- ✞ Holiday opportunities to serve and gather: Outreach is preparing Thanksgiving food collections, an Angel Tree clothing collection, and Christmas cards for homebound members and others. An Advent candle-log activity is planned for November 15, and Christmas tree decorating and cookie activities are planned for December 6. Watch the bulletin and weekly updates for details.

Thank you for the gifts of time, care, and generosity that keep Messiah's ministry moving forward.

Save the Date!

Our Annual Meeting will be held following worship either January 31st or February 7th, 2027. Please stay tuned as a date will be confirmed in the weeks to come. Plan to join us after the meeting for an enjoyable and festive potluck celebration.

ANNUAL REPORT ARTICLES ARE DUE JAN. 3rd

Poinsettia Sign Up

Poinsettias will again beautify our nave during the Christmas season. If you would like to place an order, please fill out the sign-up sheet in the narthex or contact the church office by Dec. 13th. You may take the plant(s) you ordered after the 7:30 pm service on Christmas Eve or any time thereafter. Donation: $15

The Boyce Family

We would like to thank all the members who so generously donated meals and time while both Susan and Alex were laid up this year. We are grateful for your prayers and simply saying thank you is not enough.
Regards, Sue and Alex

Living Lutheran

Remember to check out the "Living Lutheran" website, livinglutheran.org, for news about the ELCA. This includes its ministry here and around the world as well as inspiration for our lives today. An archive of past articles and issues are available. You can also sign up for free weekly emails.

Faith Formation

Noontime Bible Study

Join the Thursday Adult Bible Study group on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month at 12:00 p.m. either on-site or on Zoom. The next date will be November 5th. We will be using the book A is for Alabaster. If you need a copy, check the church library or let Joan or Eleanore know.

Stewardship

Our Daily Bread — Sharing God's Gifts

"Give us this day our daily bread." These familiar words invite us to recognize God's care in our everyday lives and consider how we can share that care with others. On Sunday, November 1, Messiah will begin Our Daily Bread, our stewardship campaign. Bread is a fitting theme for our congregation—from the bread we share at communion to Linda's lovingly baked loaves and the food we collect for our neighbors. Each reminds us that God's gifts nourish us and give us something to share.

Throughout November, we invite everyone to prayerfully consider how their time, talents, and financial gifts can support Messiah's ministry in the coming year. Your generosity helps make worship, faith formation, fellowship, and care for our neighbors possible. The campaign will conclude on Sunday, November 22, when our pledges will be blessed during worship. Whether you are making your first pledge or renewing a longtime commitment, thank you for helping Messiah continue as a faithful serving community, joyfully sharing Christ's love.

Youth and Family Ministry

Rally Day

What a great day Rally Day was! Pastor Priscilla visited us from the New Jersey Synod and was an absolute hit with the children as well as the adults. Our beloved Sunday School teachers were installed with the laying of hands by their students…so beautiful. All backpacks, work computer cases, and even a stop sign and safety vest were blessed by Pastor. Everyone took home a beautiful luggage tag as a reminder that God is always present in their lives.

Linda and Scott Axtell manned the grills in pouring rain cooking hamburgers, hot dogs and chicken too! Everyone brought something to share…from salads, to chips, to desserts, to side dishes. We always enjoy great fellowship at these events. Thank you to everyone for pulling together to have such a wonderful, albeit rainy, day!!

Hey Parents!

We are looking to have our youth/Sunday school prepare a special song for Christmas or Advent using the instruments we purchased last spring. I will be in Sunday school one upcoming Sunday to find a song that the kids are familiar with and enjoy. I will also check with Steve to find a Sunday or two when the kids can practice.
Regards, Sue

Cookie Baking

Join us on December 6th, after church, as the youth bake cookies for our coffee hours throughout December and to share with the community.
• Have a special cookie you want? Bring the dough and we'll bake it!
• Have an old family favorite you haven't had in years, give us a copy of the recipe and we'll see what we can do!
• Have a special request, but don't bake, speak to Linda Axtell!

Garden Wrap Up

A great big Thank You to Linda Axtell and other volunteers who helped with the garden at Messiah throughout the spring, summer, and fall. The vegetables that were donated weekly to Ponds Food Pantry were a blessing to those looking to eat healthy whole foods.

Fellowship

Book Club

Join us for a lively discussion on Zoom at 7 pm. Please check your local libraries to borrow the books or purchase the books for your home bookshelf. If you have any suggestions for books or questions at all, speak with Valerie.

November 9th:
"The Borrowed Life of Frederick Fife" by Anna Johnston.
Frederick Fife was born with an extra helping of kindness in his heart. If he borrowed your car, he'd return it washed with a full tank of gas. The problem is there's nobody left in Fred's life to borrow from. At eighty-two, he's desperately lonely, broke, and on the brink of homelessness. But Fred's luck changes when, in a bizarre case of mistaken identity, he takes the place of grumpy Bernard Greer at the local nursing home. Now he has warm meals in his belly and a roof over his head—as long as his poker face is in better shape than his prostate and that his look-alike never turns up.

Benevolences of the Month

BOM Ideas

If anyone has any ideas for next year's BOMs, please contact Sue Boyce by November 5th.

November: Covenant House

For over 30 years, Covenant House New Jersey has been serving youth facing homelessness ages 18-21 and victims of human trafficking of all ages. They operate in 5 cities across NJ.

December: Global Refuge

Global Refuge, formerly Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service (LIRS), is a nonprofit serving newcomers seeking safety, support, and a share in the American dream. For 85 years, they have welcomed those seeking refuge, upholding a legacy of compassion and grace for people in crisis. They walk alongside individuals, families, and children as they begin their new lives in the United States through their work in refugee resettlement, welcome and respite services for asylum seekers, economic empowerment and employment, and family unification for unaccompanied children. To date, they have served over 750,000 people from around the globe.

Impact Award

This year we were able to give two awards of 500.00 each to seniors at Indian Hills and Rampo High School.

"Dear Ms. Boyce,
Thank you very much for naming me as the recipient of the Messiah Lutheran Church Impact Scholarship. I am honored and grateful for your generosity and committed to continuing to make an impact. Receiving this scholarship means so much to me, and it will help me continue working toward my goals at Penn State. Your support and confidence in my future are appreciated. Thank you for this meaningful recognition.
Jake S."

"Dear Ms. Boyce,
I am honored to have been selected as the recipient of the Messiah Lutheran Church Impact Scholarship for 2026. Thank you for your generosity and for offering this scholarship!
I love sharing my passion for sports with others. I have continued to volunteer with Dream Team Baseball this summer and am eager to get involved with my college chapter of Best Buddies to connect with individuals in the local community with developmental disabilities. I will be attending Colby College where I will be majoring in economics and playing on the softball team. This scholarship will be put to great use as I begin my college studies. I am very grateful for your support and recognition!
Sincerely, Emily M."

Ponds Food Pantry

Thrivent Challenge: Feed North East

Thank you to the generosity of our Messiah members, as over 650 items were collected for Ponds Food Pantry as part of Thrivent's Food Challenge - FEEDNE in October! We easily surpassed the goal of 500 items and are in the running to receive a bonus of $500 for the pantry. The sizable food donation will help local families who are struggling with food insecurity. Ponds Food Pantry is currently seeing new families and sharing food with about 100 families a week! This is expected to continue into the new year, with new cuts to Medicaid forthcoming.

Winter Coat Drive

Ponds Food Pantry will be collecting new and gently used winter coats of all sizes, as well as cold weather accessories. Items may be brought to Messiah and will be shared with pantry guests throughout the winter months. Please see Michele Weintraub with any questions.

Outreach

The Thanksgiving Tree

The tree is currently up and we are collecting items to help provide Thanksgiving dinner for local families. Please take an item or 2 from the tree and bring them back NO LATER than November 15th. Root vegetables (potatoes, celery, carrots, etc.) will be collected outside the church on Saturday, November 21st.

Angel Tree

Once again this year, we will be preparing a Christmas Angel tree for those of you who wish to purchase something and bring it back. We will be purchasing for children who are guests of Ponds Food Pantry. This year's steps:

1. Take a name from the tree
2. Don't forget to sign up on the list
3. Spend about $30 (to ensure those in the same family receive comparable gifts)
4. Return your gift by December 13th.

Oktoberfest

Oktoberfest Fellowship Supports Covenant House

Thirty people gathered for Messiah's Oktoberfest Dinner on October 24th, enjoying good food, warm fellowship, and plenty of delicious homemade dishes and desserts. A Thrivent Action Card sponsored the brats and hot dogs, and everyone's contributions helped make it a wonderful evening. Thank you to all who helped set up and clean up, with special thanks to Steve Krause and Alex Boyce!

The dinner raised $300 for Covenant House, our November Benevolence of the Month. Thanks to the Perzin Fund, $250 will be matched, bringing our total support to $550! November is National Youth Homelessness Awareness Month, making this a meaningful time to support Covenant House's work. Since 1972, Covenant House has provided around-the-clock help to young people experiencing homelessness, with five locations in New Jersey. Thank you to everyone who helped turn an evening of fellowship into care and support for young people in need.

Putting Prayers to Action

82 hat and scarf sets were shipped to Putting Prayers to Action at the end of September. There were three who knit or crocheted the sets, Carol King with a whopping total of 50, Edie Baglieri - 20 sets, and I who knit 12 sets. The total for shipping was $222.09. The remaining $27 will be spent on additional yarn. I am thankful for the Thrivent Action Team donation which paid for shipping. Last year the shipping was aporoximately $190. If Thrivent funds were not available, I don't know if Messiah would be able to cover the cost. Please see the pictures attached which show all sets made.

Best Regards,
Bea

Baptism Anniversary Corner

We don't always take time to remember, reflect on, or celebrate the anniversary of our baptism so we are including them in our newsletter. The promises made at baptism are a lifelong commitment to help one another grow in the Christian faith and life – not just those baptized, but all those who are part of Christian community. Take time this day, week, or month to say a prayer or give thanks for your baptism.

*Over the years many baptism dates have not been recorded or were lost in records. If your baptism date is wrong in the newsletter, it's wrong in our records! Please let us know and we will update it. If you don't know your date, we will celebrate you on either January 1st or June 1st.

The White Pumpkin

by Jennifer Giles

This is the story
Of a pumpkin of white
What is its place on this autumn night?
Amidst all the orange and colors of fall
It seems out of place; not belonging at all
But oh what a place, and oh what a story
You see, in its face lies the image of glory

Of babies so small, so incredibly tiny
Perfect in purpose, their souls shining brightly
No less a baby, a child just the same
As one who was held and called by their name
Was my baby a he?
Or was she a she?
What would my child have grown up to be?
Yet bigger than questions and what ifs and whys
Is the comfort they feel when they look to the skies
For their hope is the truth that they so tightly cling
"I'll know all the answers, understand everything on the day that God hands my child back to me"

This pumpkin is sweet baby boys and girls
Who never opened their eyes to this world
Never cried, never feared
Protected from pain
Touched by their innocence
We're never the same
Lives perfect and pure
All things lovely and sweet
And we honor them here
'Till heaven we meet

This pumpkin is all of the sweet little ones
Whose lives although short were covered in love
In kisses and snuggles, rocking and playing
Their parents not knowing they wouldn't be staying
But the time that they had they would never trade
Even if they could be saved from the pain
Their cribs may be empty, but the promise remains
One day they'll hold their babies again

This pumpkin is for all these sweet angel friends
Whose parents all know this isn't the end
And how they are doing
Tonight up in heaven
Is better than anything we could imagine
Though we're missing our children
And we're still on this side
Our hearts will continue to swell with pride
At the special, the wondrous, the out of place things
Like this white pumpkin, and the joy that it brings
A reminder that our children are more than alive
They are perfectly whole, all things are made right

Angel parents, I know there's still tears to be shed
But I hope that this pumpkin brings peace instead
Our babies are promised forever in heaven
And that's the best gift we could ever be given.

October is Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month. This is a time to recognize and support bereaved families who have experienced the death of a child during pregnancy, childbirth, or infancy.

"Experiencing miscarriage or baby loss can be one of the most devastating experiences any woman has, yet still it's not widely talked about or acknowledged, which means it can also be one of the most isolating experiences a woman has. Just as we wrap so much love around those who are pregnant, so it's now time to do the same with those who experience pregnancy or infant loss." - Unknown

"While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease" (Genesis 8:22, NASB).

As autumn begins, we watch the world transform before our eyes. Leaves change color, the air turns crisp, and a new rhythm settles in. In these seasonal shifts, we are reminded of God's faithful hand over all of creation. Genesis 8:22 assures us that the cycles of nature—seedtime and harvest, summer and winter—are part of God's ongoing promise. Each season speaks of His order, care, and presence. Autumn, in particular, invites reflection. Just as the trees release their leaves, we are called to let go of what no longer serves us and make space for renewal. This season also marks a return to routines—school schedules, church programs, and community events. As we step into new responsibilities or revisit familiar ones, may we do so with gratitude and trust. God is not only present in the harvest but in the quiet letting go. Let this autumn be a time to embrace God's steady rhythm, find beauty in change, and rest in His faithful promises that never cease—even as the world around us shifts.
